Code of Ethics of the Institution to check malpractices and plagiarism in Research

Definition of Research mis-conduct

Mis-conduct in academic research implies fabrication, falsification, plagiarism or deception in proposing, carrying out or reporting results of research and deliberate, dangerous or negligent deviations from accepted practice in carrying out research. It includes failure to follow an agreed protocol if and when this failure results in unreasonable risk or harm to persons, the environment, and when it facilitates misconduct in research by collusion in, or concealment of, such actions by others. Misconduct also includes any plan or attempt to do any of these things. It does not include honest error or honest differences in interpretation or judgment in evaluating research methods or results, or misconduct unrelated to research processes.

Misconduct includes the following acts:

Plagiarism: The deliberate copying of ideas, text, data or other work (or any combination thereof) without due permission and acknowledgement. Piracy: The deliberate exploitation of ideas from others without proper acknowledgement

Abuse of Intellectual Property Rights:

Failure to observe legal norms regarding copyright and the moral rights of authors.

1. The wilful destruction of data (except where required by the legitimate data provider or where norms of privacy might otherwise be endangered)
2. fabrication or falsification of data
3. falsification of ownership
4. defamation
5. systematic abuse of the terms and conditions of licensed research resources
6. other systematic violation of the intellectual property rights of third parties

Procedures for Investigation of Research Misconduct

1. Instigation of proceedings without bias to the right and duty of Departments to address and assess issues of plagiarism in the course of the regular assessment of a paper presented by a researcher, any person may submit a complaint about academic misconduct to the research committee. Such complaints need to be supported by sufficient evidence.

The Research committee will decide whether the allegation is serious enough to warrant an investigation by the Ethics Committee.

However, Access to URKUND plagiarism software has been provided by the affiliated KBC North Maharashtra University, Jalgaon to all the recognized guides of the college.

The research guides examine the research articles submitted to them by the research scholars by using this software provide by university.
